How To Use This Prayer Journal

Understand The Purpose

The purpose of this journal is to help you keep your connection with your 'homeland' whilst you are doing you duties as an ambassador here on earth. Remember that you are not a spirit looking for a supernatural experience, but you a spirit that is having a natural experience. Supernatural is supposed to be a norm to you.

About The Dates

Whilst there is nothing wrong in following the dates of the calendar, this journal has been designed to free you from the dates, thus allowing you to have control over the dates as you make entries herein. It is provided in good faith that you will be true to your devotion to the Lord whom you owe it all to.

Document Your Prayer Items

Writing down your prayer items helps you to keep track of the petitions that you have made to the Father. It will help you tick it off when you have received the answer to any of the items. Going back over the items will serve as a reminder in aligning your everyday language to your prayer items and scripture.

Scriptural References

The references to scripture are there to give you a nudge in the right direction. You need to make it your sworn responsibility to search the scriptures, and thus making the study of the Word of God your second nature. That is how you will thrive and be victorious in the spiritual environment.

Take Time To Meditate

Much of the answers to prayer come during the time taken to meditate on the Word of God. That is the time when God has the chance to direct and lead you in the paths of righteousness. Give God the time that He needs to put out words that you so desperately need in your spirit to change situations and circumstances in your life and in the world. Write down what He tells you in the journal; that way you will never forget it, and you will keep meditating on those words.

Engaging In Active Expectation

You receive what you expect to receive. Learn the art of expecting from the pregnant woman. She takes the time to focus on what she is expecting, talks about it as though it is already there, nurtures it, prepares and makes room for it until it manifests as her bundle of joy. That is how to expect and to receive from God – by aligning your words and actions to your expectation.

An Attitude Of Gratitude

Giving thanks to the Father of lights everyday keeps your faith sharp and engaged at all times. You acknowledge that the answer to your prayer has already been granted even when you do not yet see the manifestation in the natural. It puts you in a place where, like your Father God, you call things that be not as though they were (Romans 4:17).

This prayer journal will not only change your prayer life, but it is meant to impact and change your entire spiritual life and relationship with the Godhead for the better, and for good.

PREAMBLE
Whatever You Do, Seek Wisdom
(Proverbs 8)

I, WISDOM – MY ORIGIN

22 The Lord formed me and brought me (Wisdom) forth at the beginning of His way, before His acts of old.

23 I (Wisdom) was inaugurated and ordained from everlasting, from the beginning, before ever the earth existed (John 1:1 1 Cor.1:24).

24 When there were no deeps, I was brought forth, when there were no fountains laden with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was brought forth (Job 15:7,8).

26 While as yet He had not made the land or the fields or the first of the dust of the earth.

27 When He prepared the heavens, I (Wisdom) was there, when He drew a circle upon the face of the deep and stretched out the firmament over it.

28 When He made firm the skies above, when He established the fountains of the deep.

29 When He gave the sea its limit and His decree that the water should not transgress (across the boundaries set by) His command, when He appointed the foundations of the earth - (Job 38:10 11; Ps. 104:6-9; Jer. 5:22).

30 Then I (Wisdom) was beside Him as a master and director of the work; and I was daily His delight, rejoicing before Him always, (Matt. 3:17; John 1:2,18).

31 Rejoicing in His inhabited earth and rejoicing in the sons of men.

I, WISDOM – WHERE TO FIND ME

12 I, Wisdom (from God), make prudence my dwelling, and I find out knowledge and discretion (James 1:5).

1 DOESN'T skillful and godly Wisdom cry out, and understanding raise her voice?

2 On top of the heights besides the way, where the paths meet stands Wisdom, (skillful and godly).

3 At the gates of the entrance of the town gates the coming in at the doors, she cries out:

4 To you, O Men, I call, and my voice is directed to the sons of men.

I, WISDOM – MY INTENTIONS

14 I have counsel and sound knowledge, I have understanding, I have might and power.
6 Hear, for I will speak excellent and princely thing; and the opening of my lips shall be for the right things.
7 For my mouth shall utter truth, and wrongdoing is detestable and loathsome to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are righteous (upright and in right standing with God); there is nothing contrary to truth or crooked in them.
11 For skillful and godly Wisdom is better than rubies or pearls, and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it. [Job 28:15; Ps. 19:10; 119:127.]

I, WISDOM – MY ADVICE TO YOU

17 I love those that love me, and those who seek me early and diligently shall find me (1 Sam. 2:30; Ps. 91:14; John 14:21; James 1:5).
9 They (All my words) are plain to him who understands (and opens his heart), and right to those who find knowledge (and live by it).
32 Now therefore listen to me, O you sons; for blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) are those who keep my ways (Ps. 119:1-2;128:1-2; Luke 11:28).
10 Receive my instruction in preference to (striving for) silver, and all the things that may be desired are not compared to it (Job 28:15; Ps.19:10;119:127).
33 Hear my instruction and be wise, and do not refuse (or neglect) it.

I, WISDOM – MY UNDERTAKING TO YOU

20 I (Wisdom) walk in the way of righteousness (moral and spiritual rectitude in every area and relation), in the midst of the path of justice.
34 Blessed (happy, fortunate to be envied) is the man who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.
18 Riches and honor are with me, enduring wealth and righteousness (uprightness in every area and relation, and right standing with God) (Prov.3:16; Matt. 6:33).
15 By Me kings reign and rulers decree Justice (Dan 2:21; Rom.13:11).
16 By Me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges and governors of the earth.
19 My fruit is better than gold, yes, than refined gold, and my increase than choice silver.

I, WISDOM – MY PARTING WORDS

35 for whoever finds me (Wisdom) finds life and draws forth and obtains favor from the Lord.
36 But he who misses me or sins against me wrongs and injures himself; all who hate me love and court death.

I, WISDOM, AM A BLESSING FROM GOD.

Introduction To Prayer

As you engage through this prayer journal, I would like to encourage you to see this not as just another religious exercise, but as an engagement with God. You must change your attitude towards prayer and have a clear understanding of what prayer is about. Proverbs 24:3-4 reads, "Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: and by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches." Amongst other meanings embedded in this scripture passage, your engagement with God in prayer is clearly laid out. Prayer is a very exciting way of communicating with God. It is in prayer that you realise the reality of God and His yearning to engage with you on a daily basis. That is what Adam used to enjoy in the cool of the day before the fall (Genesis 3:8). Prayer should never take the definition of an errand or chore; it is fellowship or communion with God. It is where you discover your purpose – the reason for being. And when you do you will find out that there is nothing on earth more exciting than walking with God.

Understanding what prayer is about establishes your prayer life. It is here that you understand that a prayer life goes beyond thirty minutes, or forty-five minutes, or an hour on your knees. You will understand that prayer goes far beyond asking for this or that from God, but it is your lifestyle wherever you are. You will understand that your speech will be the same when you are talking to God as when you are speaking with a fellow human being. You will understand that what God does to you in your secret place of prayer will be seen out in the public space. That was what defined the ministry of our Lord Jesus.

What Happens In The Prayer Closet

There are amazing things that happen when you are with God in the secret place. This is what most believers miss. They rush in and out of the prayer room, and in the process come out with nothing. You cannot go in the presence of a loving and giving God and come out empty-handed.

- In prayer, Joseph came out with a kingdom;
- in prayer, Hannah came out with a prophet and judge of Israel;
- in prayer, David came out with a kingdom;
- in prayer, Esther came out with deliverance for Israel;
- in prayer, Mary came out with a Saviour of mankind.

What will you come out with from your prayer closet?

I want to challenge you to approach prayer with a completely different attitude. This subject is so broad that we cannot explore it fully in this platform because it encompasses all of you – who you are, what you do, what you become, and all other aspects of your life. This is where dreams are conceived, nurtured and delivered. This is the place from where you carry the blessing of the Lord and deliver it to humanity. This is where no room for selfishness exists – you learn that your life is not your own, but a vehicle through which you become a blessing to all of humanity. Every man or woman that has ever lived a life of true prayer has walked out of the closet to become a great blessing to the people of God in one way or another. It is not for the privileged few, but for all of us. It just depends on how you respond to the call to prayer and what you do with what is given to you.

An effective prayer life will fill you with all precious and pleasant riches. This is the kind of prayer that is based on the word of God, and that empowers the believer to be a partaker of the divine nature (2 Peter 1:4). Prayer is central to us partaking of God's nature. It develops you to approach life and all its intricacies with God's attitude, devoid of fear and worry, but full of resting in the promises of God. Worry becomes foreign to a man or woman who knows how to connect with God in prayer.

"If my people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sins and will heal their land"
(2 Chronicles 7:14, NIV)

Prayer Secret No. 1
Do Away With Religion

If prayer is going to be a lifestyle for you, then you will need to seriously consider doing away with religion and religious traditions. This is not rhetoric; it is serious enough for even the Lord Jesus to think of mentioning it when He taught His disciples about prayer in Matthew 6:5,7 (AMP), "Also when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward in full already... And when you pray, do not heap up phrases (multiply words, repeating the same ones over and over) as the Gentiles do, for they think they will be heard for their much speaking."

Needless to mention, if Jesus thought it necessary to point that out, then it means that it is something people normally get caught up in, thinking that they are doing the right thing, when in fact they are not. This means that most of the things that we usually think we know about prayer are really useless religious practices. No wonder many people have the idea that God takes long to answer prayer. That has never been the case in any normal conversation even among human beings; why then should it be normal when it comes to God? Study your Bible closely, and you will find that God answers prayer just as normally as any people would talk to each other. What brought about these ideas about God taking long to answer prayer? It is because people approach prayer with a religious attitude and without the knowledge of who God is and how He operates. Also, they have listened to people teaching them about a subject of prayer that they themselves know nothing about. And so now, like the disciples of the Lord Jesus, humble yourself to receive instruction in prayer, and pay attention to what the Word – not religion – says about it. The ideal about prayer is that the interaction of your petition and answer should happen in real time. That is the biblical presentation of the subject when God's people interact with Him. Study the following scripture passages:

Genesis 3:8-13; 7:1-5; 12:1-4; 15:1-6; 18:22-33; 32:24-29; Exodus 3:1-22; 4:1-27; 1 Samuel 3:3-4, 9-15; 30:1-19; 2 Samuel 5:17-25; 1 Kings 3:5-15, 28; 17:1-5; 2 Chronicles 20:1-20; Isaiah 6:8-12; 38:1-6; 59:1-3; Jeremiah 1:4-15; Ezekiel 37:3-14; Daniel 10:2-14; Habakkuk 2:1-4; Luke 1:11-20, 28-38; Acts 4:23-31; 9:3-6, 10-18; 10:1-21; 13:2-3.

You are now not permitted to proceed reading until you have taken time through all the scriptures listed heretofore. These scripture passages are a picture of how the Lord operates – His modus operandi – when it comes to interacting with man.

Now let the Word debunk and set you free from that religious thought that will now creep into your mind and whisper, "But these were special servants of God who walked with Him in a special way, and that is why it is recorded in the Bible." That is a lie from the pit of hell and it is meant to keep you bound in religion. James 5:17-18 (NIV) says, "Elijah was a human being, even as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops." The scriptures quoted above are meant to unlearn you of all the religious programming that was engrained in your thinking about prayer or fellowship with the LORD. He has not changed, and He will never change (Malachi 3:6; James 1:17). We are the ones that must cast out our religious inclinations and adjust to His way of thinking and doing. Approach this exercise like a little child that is eager to learn new things, and with childlike faith embrace the instruction of the Lord prescribed in this journal. "And he said, Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 18:3, NIV).

First Things First (John 1:1)

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God." The Word is the law that governs the realm of the spirit. You are likely to lose a case if you go to court without the knowledge and understanding of the law that applies to the case. The same is true for spiritual things. Strive to be a passionate student of the word of God (the Bible in its entirety). God's people are destroyed because of the lack of knowledge of the word of God (Hosea 4:6). You limit the effectiveness of your prayer life if you embark on it without a commitment to the word of God.

Keep sin confessed out of your life. No, this is not a consciousness; it is meant to keep communication channels uninterrupted between you and God. The word guides us to pray along these lines: "Father, due to my imperfection, if I have in any way sinned against You by commission or omission in thought, word or deed, I repent and plead the blood of Jesus to cleanse me of the unrighteousness, in Jesus' name." This helps you to be ever conscious of the holiness of the God that you are interacting with. (See Daniel 9:1-19).

Confess Your Sins (Part 2)

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Be reminded that you do not confess your sins because you are a sinner, but because you are progressively growing into the image of Christ. You may stumble and miss it in the process, and therefore you do not need to be held back by any sin, known or unknown. Repentance is a norm in the process of growth. The mere fact that you are still growing indicates that you are not perfect, and you need to understand and acknowledge that. In that manner, the enemy shall have no foothold on you or drag you over in the area of doubt and condemnation (Romans 8:1).

No Longer A Sinner (Romans 5:8)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

The phrase "while we were still sinners" in Romans 5:8 implies that you are no longer a sinner. 1 John 3:1 (NIV), "See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God." Religion will insist on you labeling yourself a sinner, but that is an insult to the grace of God and the work of the Cross. Your title is no longer 'sinner' but 'child of God'. You cannot be both at the same time. Get rid of that sinner identity once and for all. "We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does His will" (John 9:31, NIV).

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

"And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together [giving us joint seating with Him] in the heavenly sphere [by virtue of our being] in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One)" (AMP). A sinner cannot be made to sit with Christ in heavenly places. You are a new creature in Christ Jesus. Approach the presence of God with the confidence that He has made you're his righteousness – one that can stand before Him without a sense of guilt or condemnation. Come boldly into the throne room of grace (Hebrews 4:16).

In His Image (Romans 8:29)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Even though you cannot see God with your eyes, you ought not really struggle to figure out God's form. Scripture describes Him in several places. The point is that you are made in His image (Psalm 139:13) . But how? Your body is nothing more than the clothing for your spirit the same way that your outfit is clothing for your body. You were not made to fit into your clothes, but your clothes were made to fit you. That is how your body is in relation to your spirit. Your mouth, hands and feet are an extension of God's mouth, hands and feet. Jesus said that the Father has a human form (John 14:9; Hebrews 1:3).

In His Image (Part 2)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

God is described as a consuming fire (Hebrews 12:29). But the prophet Ezekiel gives a more striking description of Him when he said, "I saw that from what appeared to be His waist up He looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down He looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded Him" (Ezekiel 1:27, NIV). When you develop yourself in the spirit through constant fellowship with Him in prayer and the Word you get to the point where you look like that also because you are made in His image.

God Is For You (Romans 8:31)

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Understand that God is for you (on your side) and not against you. He wants to work on your behalf more than you can ever imagine. He is more eager to be with you than you are to be with Him. He has chosen to love you when you least deserved it; how much more now that you are His child and a member of His own household? Romans 5:8 (NIV) says, "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Do not fear to draw near to Him; He has been expecting you to do so for a long time.

In God's Class (1 John 4:17)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

As you walk into your prayer closet, realise that you approach a Person that has accepted you in His class (Hebrews 4:15-16). You do not approach Him unworthily; He decided to make you worthy, not by your own righteousness, but through the blood of Jesus Christ. You have every right to fall on His lap as a well-beloved child. Ephesians 5:1 (AMP), "Therefore be imitators of God [copy Him and follow His example], as well-beloved children imitate their father]." You cannot imitate something in whose class you do not belong. You belong in God's class.

Fellowship With God (1 John 1:3)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

You fellowship with God because you have a relationship with Him. He is your Father, and you are His child. Graduate from going to God on the basis of needs and learn to spend time with Him because you enjoy His presence. Learn to not spend time with God only in time of a crisis, be it healing or financial breakthrough or when in need of the non- essential stuff that some have made a priority in their lives. Just have a 'You and me' time with God, sometimes without having to ask anything from Him: He enjoys that a lot (John 15:14-15). It will not be long before His reality to you gets stronger and stronger.

Not By Sight (2 Corinthians 5:7)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

It does not matter that you do not see God with your physical eyes; that is irrelevant. He is more real than the floor that you kneel on or anything else that you can see. He is not some 'invisible influence'; He is a Person that cannot be seen because He is a Spirit, which is why we are called to worhip Him in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). The only difference between you and Him is that you have a physical body and He does not. Do not let your body hinder your fellowship with Him; He is not bothered by that, and neither should you. In prayer you should allow a spirit to spirit communion to take place between you and God.

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

"Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you. Love her, and she will watch over you" (Proverbs 4:6, NIV). When you love someone, you just cannot help but want to spend time with them. Jesus demonstrated His love for you by dying for you on the cross. You demonstrate your love for Him by desiring and striving to become like Him. You are predestined to be molded into the image of Jesus so that you will look alike with Him as your Big Brother, and you His little brother or sister (read Romans 8:29 and Hebrews 2:11-12).

God Speaks (Hebrews 1:1-2)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

The Bible is God's word speaking to you. One of the best ways to enjoy your walk with God is by learning to hear God when He speaks to you. But you will have to get very acquainted with the written word of God first. God speaks just as well as, and even better than you do. The reason people struggle to hear Him speak is because they do not know His voice. Jesus said, "I have other sheep that are not of this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They too will listen to (or hear) my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd" (John 10:16, NIV). The voice is used for speaking, and is meant to be heard.

God Speaks (Part 2)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

The reason you have to learn to hear the voice of God is because speaking and hearing are two elements of the communication process. Religion teaches that when you pray, God will hear and answer when He wants to. That is the impression given which makes prayer boring when you seem to be speaking to a stone that does not answer. That is not the God described in the Bible. The God of the Bible hears and speaks back when His children engage with Him in prayer. The Word of God will train you to recognise the voice of God when He speaks because He speaks directly to your spirit and not your physical ears. Feed your spirit with God's word like you feed your body with food.

Learn To Listen (Proverbs 4:20)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

"My son, pay attention to what I say; turn your ear to my words" (NIV). That is God's invitation to you. Notice that it is your decision to listen to God. He will speak to and be heard by anyone who deliberately listens. Many times you can hear the voice of your body when it says "I'm hungry; ...I'm sick; ...I'm tired." You can hear the voice of fear when it says "You will never make it this time; ...you will not recover from this disease." All those are voices speaking to you and you hear them because you are used to them through your body and circumstances. Your lifespan is a long and boring one if you cannot hear the voice of the God that you claim to follow. It is never meant to be that way. Anybody can turn their ear to the voice of God if they want to. It is not meant for the 'special' selected few; it is for whoever will do what it takes to hear it. Hearing the voice of God is what will help you lead a meaningful and fulfilling life here on earth. It is then that you will be able to step into God's paths for your life so that you can be a blessing to all of humanity (Psalm 23:3). "When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you; when you awake, they will speak to you" (Proverbs 6:22).

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." The wisdom of God is the Word of God. We know that Christ has been made unto us the wisdom of God (1 Corinthians 1:30; John 1:1-4, 14). Therefore getting wisdom is getting the word of God. It is talking primarily about the written word of God, which we refer to as the Holy Bible. The first step to learning to hear the voice of God is by constantly studying His word (the Bible), and giving yourself completely to it.

The day that you will believe the report of the word of God (as written in the Bible) more than you believe what is written in the newspaper will be the day of your breakthrough as a child of God. You ought to be so bent by the word of God to where nothing that you see or feel can convince you against the report of the word of God. You only reach that point by continually studying your Bible. As much as you give yourself to the written Word of God, you should also seek to co-operate with the Holy Spirit that has been given to you. Prayer Secret No. 2
All Your Life Is Prayer

You cannot separate your prayer life from your daily life, including all that which is entailed in your life. A separation of prayer and daily life activities is what results in most of the defeat and unanswered prayers in the lives of believers. The same faith applicable in prayer must be the same faith applicable in your life in general. That is what scripture means when it says that the just shall live by faith (Habakkuk 2:4; Hebrews 10:38). Pay attention to this: words govern all of reality, and that is how God designed life to operate. You cannot say one thing in the prayer closet, and then go on to say something else that is in contradiction to what you said in that prayer when you are outside the closet. It just will not work (Mark 11:23-24).

You have to get your life in order to the point that whatever you say in public or among friends, co-workers, relatives, and so on is in total agreement with what you said to God in prayer. You are still the same person in the prayer closet and outside the closet, and He is still the same God answering your prayer. So what does this mean? It means that if you base your prayer on the word of God, then you will also keep your lips from speaking guile (Psalm 34:13). Hypocrisy is when you speak one way before God, trying to convince Him that you are aligned with His word and you have faith, and then speak something in the contrary when you are not addressing Him. That is deceit. The person who does that must never think that he or she will receive anything from the Lord (James 1:6). Now you realise the reason to have yourself totally soaked in the word of God… living by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God (Matthew 4:4).

Does that sound like being over the top? No, it is not being over the top; it is assuming what you should always be according to the plan of God for your life. What makes people fail to receive answers to their prayers? James teaches that it is praying on the basis of their lustful desires (James 4:1-3). Lustful desires are those desires that are not based on the word of God, for the word of God (or the promises embedded in it) causes us to escape the corruption that is in the world through lust (2 Peter 1:4). "How do I pray the word of God all the time? Is my life supposed to be the word of God?" Most definitely! That is what God has been after all along. You have to come to the point where you realise that your life and the answers to your prayers is not about you. The day you fully understand this truth and embrace it will be the turning point of fully experiencing the joy of answered prayers. Our problem is that we have been taught or made to believe in selfishness. We ask for all the things that address our selfish desires. The Lord Jesus spoke about this in Matthew 6:25-33. Please pause now and read that scripture passage and reflect on it and try to extract or draw personal lessons from it.

The paramount lesson that you must have learnt from Matthew 6:25-33 should be that none of the things that pertain to our mundane lives should be your concern, but that you should rather be concerned about the kingdom of God and becoming like Him. It is when you get to this point that all these things that you need for your earthly existence shall be added to you. No, this is not to say that you do not need all those things; it is to say rather that they are not primary. And besides, your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all those things (Matthew 6:32). But needing them does not mean that you should seek after them, for then are you not different from those who do not even know God. Therefore, if you seek the heart of God in prayer, He will be obliged by the promise He made in Matthew 6:33 to see to it that those things that you need for your earthly existence are catered for in excess of your expectations (Ephesians 3:20).

But how do you get to where you are concerned with the heart of God? It is by surrounding yourself with the word of God to where nothing matters to you more than the word of God. That is what is meant by Proverbs 4:5-9, which reads: "Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forget my words or turn away from them. Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you; love her, and she will watch over you. The beginning of wisdom is this: get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding. Cherish her, and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will honour you. She will give you a garland to grace your head and present you with a glorious crown" (NIV).

Yours is a life in the spirit because you are a spirit being. Do not be pulled back or deceived by the physical aspect of your existence; do not be fooled by the house (or tabernacle) that you live in (1 Corinthians 6:19; 2 Peter 1:14). Therefore it is in your best interest that you develop a close relationship with your fellow spirit being called Holy Spirit. He is your best prayer partner who will teach you the best way to pray (Romans 8:26-27). He is in you right now, but He is such a gentle Spirit who will only be involved in your life when He is invited to do so. The most painful thing you can do to a guest is to ignore them. We all know how to entertain our guests so that they feel welcome in our space. Holy Spirit is as much a guest as any other, and much better than the rest, and He does appreciate being entertained. Deliberately train your mind to remember His presence in your life all the time (Romans 8:14; Galatians 5:18,25). You need Him more than you need the oxygen that you breathe. He is the power that brings everything to pass in your life. He is the power that brought this entire universe into being (Genesis 1:2; Matthew 12:28), and He now dwells within you (John 14:17).

Learn to engage the Holy Spirit in your prayer life. That is one way in which you cultivate a consciousness of His presence all the time. Also, He will teach you how to pray as you allow the prayer language of the Spirit to take over as you pray. The prayer language of the Spirit is what we refer to as other tongues (1 Corinthians 14:14-15). That is the most powerful way of prayer as it closes out everybody else except God who is involved with your praying (1 Corinthians 14:2). Many believers still have a problem understanding this aspect of prayer, but it does not change what is written about it.

Settle it in your mind that God is not out there, but He is in you, and has become one with you. Know that He is closer to you than the next person in your room when you relate with Him in prayer. And like Proverbs 18:24 says, He is a friend that is closer than a brother. Get rid of this 'God-in-heaven out there' mentality and understand that He dwells within you (Luke 17:20-21). Prayer of Consecration is like the one made by our Lord Jesus when He was in the Garden of Gethsemane before His crucifixion (Matthew 26:39). This is the only kind of prayer that characterised by the phrase "if it be Your will." Here you relinquish your own will to the will of God about an issue. In the natural, Jesus wanted to withdraw from the cross, but He laid His will aside and gave way to the Father's will to be done. This is also the prayer that must dominate most of the believer's life (Matthew 6:10; Acts 20:22-24). You come to the point where you acknowledge that your life is not about you anymore.

This is based on the known will and provision made by the Lord for our health and any other promise that is documented in the Word of God (2 Peter 1:3-4). Prayer of Supplication is the one wherein requests or petitions are made to the Lord. There are different petitions that can be made regarding our lives and the lives of those around us. Consistent with the calling of God on your life, you can ask for anything that is required for you to fulfil that calling and it will be granted to you (John 16:23-24). It is important to understand that the short life here on earth is best lived to the glory of God, meaning that we should endeavour not to live for ourselves but for God. This is where the offering of your body to the Lord as a living sacrifice becomes a reality (Romans 12:1).

Prayer of Intercession is one where you stand in the gap for other people. This is central to a believer's life, as it indicates your desire to see the will of God done on earth through the salvation of as many people as possible. Abraham, Moses, David, Samuel, Jesus, the early apostles, and others that went after the heart of God offered this kind of prayer on a regular basis (Ezekiel 22:30-31). God is always looking for somebody to stand in the gap on behalf of individuals, communities and nations, to pray for God's mercy and destruction to be averted, thereby giving them a chance to repent (1 Timothy 2:1-4).

Prayer of Agreement is described by Jesus in Matthew 18:19, "Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of My Father which is in heaven." This is the prayer of agreement that may be offered by friends, couples, or a body of believers in a corporate setting (Acts 4:23-31). The unrest and atrocities in our lands can be brought to a standstill if believers could understand the power in this kind of prayer, but we must be in total agreement to see the results. Anyone who cannot raise his faith level to the agreement should excuse himself from participating in this prayer.

Prayer of Binding and Loosing will work in conjunction with the prayer of agreement, albeit not limited to that. One or more believers can, in faith, exercise their authority to bind or loose activities in the spirit (Matthew 18:18). The binding or loosing in heaven does not refer to where God dwells because there is nothing there that requires either of these. It refers to the demonic realm that controls the things that manifest in this world in different forms such as murders, injustice, violence, gangsterism and all sorts of evil (Psalm 149:6-9).

The Prayer of Communion is a powerful prayer that invests in your fellowship with God. It is beautiful to go before God just to spend time in fellowship with Him. This was and still is the reason God made man in the first place. Anybody will enjoy the company of a friend who will come to them not because they have a need, but because they value their relationship. "A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother" (Proverbs 18:24). Nothing that concerns the Spirit of God will work outside of love. Love is the 'mechanism' that causes your faith to work. If you struggle with prayer that seems to go unanswered, the number one thing to check is your love walk. Love is best described in 1 Corinthians 13:4-8. That is the Love Checklist. To add on that, observing and living according to that checklist will make you more like God, for He is love. Those are the characteristics of God in a nutshell. Let the words of your mouth work together with and be a reflection of what you believe in your heart. If you have trouble restraining your tongue, then you need to go back and lock yourself in with the word of God until it reprograms your heart and fills it with the Word, "for the mouth speaks what the heart is full of" (Matthew 12:34, NIV). M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Beware of the trap of emotionalism when you go to God in prayer. There are believers who think that God answers their tears. Well, if He did, then most of the poor would be well-off by now because there is no telling to how many tears they have cried. Granted, situations can be painful, but it is faith, and not emotions, that will take us out of those situations. God, like any judge, is not moved by tears; He is moved by your faith. So you cannot manipulate God with tears when you have no faith, otherwise God will not be true to His word if He gives in to people's emotionalism. If crying works for you, then it had better be mixed with faith (Hebrews 11:6).

Strive to align your everyday speech with your prayer life. Do not pray for one thing, for example, the peace in your community, and then walk out of the prayer room and say, "You won't believe the division and wickedness in my neighbourhood!" You just cancelled your prayer! You just dug up the seed that you sowed, and how dare you expect it to germinate and yield a harvest? This is where many believers abort their prayers, by failing to keep a watch on their mouths. Proverbs 4:24 calls it a froward (false and dishonest) mouth and perverse lips, which you must learn to put away from you.

Note that there is a difference between praying in other tongues and speaking in other tongues. Failing to understand this creates confusion among believers. You can speak in tongues the whole day and wherever you may be, as long as you keep it within yourself (1 Corinthians 14:18-19). Speaking in tongues helps you to edify yourself in the spirit – it charges you up the same way you would charge your cellular phone battery (1 Corinthians 14:4). How do you edify yourself? You render your own spirit to become more sensitive to the Holy Spirit inside you. The more you speak in tongues the better for you and it can be done anytime, for example, when you are driving, doing house chores, or just walking.

Praying in tongues helps you to address issues with God that may be difficult to articulate in your own language as you may not know how to do it (Romans 8:26-27). Sometimes you will not know what to pray for, but the Spirit helps you to address those issues. When you pray in the spirit you find yourself praying for things even in distant lands that you would never be aware of in any way. You can pray for people that are in trouble when you do not even know that is what you are doing. This happens as you follow the promptings of the Spirit to pray when you are in tune with the Holy Spirit as a result of constantly speaking in tongues.

Worshiping God must not be limited to a church setting; it must be the lifestyle of the believer. Great things happen in the spirit and in the natural when believers learn to worship God in spirit and in truth. Notice that worship has nothing to do with how you feel. You do not do it because God has done something for you, but because He is worthy to be worshiped. Worship comes out of you not as a result of a command, but out of an appreciation of His goodness to you. The Value Of Meditation

> "The rays of the Sun, diffused over the entire surface of the Earth, produce only a moderate warmth, but if even a few of them are concentrated by means of a glass, they are capable of producing fire at the focusing point. Thought force is the most powerful means of obtaining knowledge. If it is concentrated upon a subject, it will burn its way through any obstacle and solve the problem. If the requisite amount of thought is brought to bear, there is nothing that is beyond the power of human comprehension. So long as we scatter it, thought force is of little use to us, but as soon as we are prepared to take the trouble necessary to harness it, all knowledge is ours" ~ Max Heindel, The Rosicrucian Cosmo-conception (1909).

Thought force is a trait that all of humanity possesses, except that many practice it in the negative direction. The best way that I can explain this is by asking you a simple question: have you ever worried about anything in your life? Anyone who will say 'No' to this question is a liar because at one point or another we all have worried about something. Some of us worry about not worrying at all. So if you can worry, then you can meditate because worry is meditation on the lies of satan. All that you need to do is refocus your energy and meditate on what God has said to you, be it about who you are, or any of His promises to you, or whatever else proceeds from the mouth of God. That is how you are supposed to live: by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God (Deuteronomy 8:3; Matthew 4:4; Luke 4:4). These are the words that we need to learn to channel our thinking towards and expose our thought force to.

What is it that you are praying and believing God for? Is it healing, finances, peace in your life and home, protection for your children? Find a scripture that covers that area and go to God with it. Pray those two or three scripture verses to God in faith (2 Corinthians 13:1). Then sit back and soak your mind on those scriptures. 'Worry' those scripture (so to speak), and mutter them to yourself long enough for them to start consuming your thought life. Once you reach that point you will notice your believing begin to change. Then what you see around you will not matter anymore instead of worry you will begin to speak the word based on the scriptures you are reading and meditating on. This will be a lifestyle whether you are speaking to yourself, to God, or to any other person around you.

Note that your biggest challenge is not that you do not believe. It is what you believe, which turns out to be what you speak, which then turns out to be the seed you sow, and ultimately the harvest that you reap. "I believed, therefore have I spoken" (Psalm 116:10; 2 Corinthians 4:13).

I must warn you though: meditation is not easy if you are not used to it, but it can be practiced by anybody. I would advise that you consider starting off learning to focus your mind on God's word for 10 or 15 minutes for a couple of days. Then you will graduate to maybe 25 to 30 minutes. And before you know it you'll be doing it for an hour or two. The goal is to get to the point of Joshua 1:8 (AMP), which says, "This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night*, that you may observe and do according to all that is written in it..."* This is one art that the devil stole from the church for ages; hence our churches and personal lives as believers have been so devoid of power. Meditation is where you develop your ability to hear God speak to you. Meditation burns the dirt off and unclogs the channel that should be open for you to communicate effectively with God. It works more like fine-tuning the channel so you can hear God clearly. However, you dare not venture into meditation if you do not constantly study the word of God because you will have to judge whatever you hear with the word of the living God.

The Lost Art (Psalm 1:2)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Meditation is an art that has been lost to the church for a long, long time. The reason is that the enemy knows the amount of power inherent in it. Also, thank God for the Western believers that took the gospel all over the world, but they know very little about meditation because the Bible, though it may be reproduced in the West, is not a Western book. The Bible says a lot about meditation. All its writers, inspired by the Holy Spirit, were Eastern people. Think about Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Joshua, and all the way to the apostles. All these knew the place of meditation in the life of a believer, and so should you.

Your biggest question at this point might be, "All good, but where do I start?" Start with easy to understand verses of scripture like "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" (Deuteronomy 6:4). You can spend your whole prayer session, however long, thinking about this and whispering it to yourself. Fix your thoughts squarely on the statement, and establish in your thinking that you belong to and serve only one Lord. Then you shall know that "thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might" (Deuteronomy 6:5).

"But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in His law doth he meditate day and night." Prayer becomes not a chore but a delight when the child of God trains himself or herself to delight in the law of the Lord. You show your delight through meditating in that law (or Word) day and night. The Lord has not instituted prayer as a way of testing your obedience, but it a platform for a living fellowship with Him, which can be greatly enhanced through meditation. You cannot wait for your next prayer session when you know that it is a session of communion with God in stark reality.

God desires to speak to you "face to face, as one speaks to his friend" (Exodus 33:11). That was how God spoke to Moses in the Old Testament. We are in the New Testament that is "established upon better promises" (Hebrews 8:6). This means that if we let Him and position ourselves for it, the Lord has no problem speaking to us as one speaks to his friend. The question is: do we have faith to believe and expect it to be so? The Apostle John – Revelator – was that way because he chose His place in the bosom of the Lord (John 13:23-24). Jesus did not choose to love this man; he positioned himself for it, and so can we.

Whatever you do, see to it you are established on the firm foundation of the Word of God. If you practice meditation without being a staunch student of the Word you might open yourself up to deceiving spirits. Meditation will open up a whole new world into the spiritual, where there are many spirit beings, many of which might not be of God. Therefore you must train yourself to the voice of God through His word. Whatever you believe to have heard in the spirit, do not act upon it until you have judged it with the written Word of God by finding at least two or three scriptures that will back it up (Deuteronomy 19:15; Matthew 18:16; 2 Corinthians 13:1).

Going before God in prayer does not mean the enemy will not try to intrude and seek to mislead. If it happened to the Lord Jesus it will most likely happen to you too (Matthew 4:1-11; Hebrews 4:15). The devil barged into Jesus' prayer time in the wilderness and started quoting scriptures out of context. That was the same trick that he used on Eve in the Garden of Eden. Now if you do not know scripture properly you will take the bait just like Eve did. She was deceived, went on to drag her husband into it, and it cost them everything. There could have been a problem if Jesus did not know how to differentiate between the Father's voice and that of the devil.

Not An Easy Practice (Isaiah 40:31)

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Meditation is not an easy practice. Your mind is used to being scattered all over the place, and bringing it to focus on one subject will always be hard for the beginner, but it can be done through constant practice. Your mind will present 101 different things to think about when it is time to meditate. Do not give up; fix your mind on that one verse of scripture. An easier way to help your mind focus is to engage your mouth and speak that verse out. Your mind will always wait to hear what your mouth has to say. You cannot say one thing and think about another at the same time.

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

We read about how Bible characters used to walk with God in ways that is exemplary and desirable for today's believer. We miss a point about their habit that was endorsed by God because He instituted it, namely meditation. Today's believer has been taught to dismiss it as Eastern mysticism, but that is not what it is. It matters what you meditate upon. "Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all" (1 Timothy 4:15). Meditate upon what? Back up a little bit to find out – look at verses 13 and 14, and you will have an idea.

Meditation Versus Confession (Joshua 1:8)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Meditation is a function of the soul (where the mind is embedded) (Philippians 4:8), and confession is the function of the heart (Matthew 12:34). Therefore the two cannot be interchanged; they refer to two different activities. You speak what you have conveyed into your heart through meditation. If it is negative, it will be heard from your mouth; and if it is positive, your mouth will reveal it too. It is like this: if you take a lemon and squeeze it, never expect orange juice because it is not there. So when you are put under pressure, what is in your heart in abundance will come out of your mouth. Meditation will regulate these inevitable dynamics.

Abraham is one in whose steps we are admonished to follow (Romans 4:12; Isaiah 51:1-2). "And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide..." (Genesis 24:63). Where do you think Isaac learned the art of meditation? From his father Abraham, of course! "And the Lord appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre..." (Genesis 18:1). How do you think such appearances were triggered? Abraham was a man of deep meditation, and it always paid off.

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer" (Psalm 19:14). Again you see from David's account how confession and meditation are two different activities. Meditation is a very important aspect of prayer. You miss out on so much when you pray and exclude meditation. Meditation is the act of fixing your thoughts on a particular subject of [spiritual] interest, thereby pushing away the rubble that covers valuable spiritual truths. Spiritually, it helps to extract the gold that is buried deep in the ground and bring it to the surface.

Power Of Meditation (Psalm 119:15)

"I meditate on Your precepts and consider Your ways" (NIV). The same way that worrying (or meditating about a problem) makes a problem more real and magnifies it in your thinking, so does meditating (or thinking deeply) on the word of God magnify the Lord and His promises in your thinking. You begin to see it as a reality and respond to it. If it is worry, then a confession based on fear will creep in, cripple and dominate you. If it is meditating on the goodness of God, then a blessed confession that brings faith will follow, leading to your victory. So, whether in the positive or negative, your life is built around meditation.

Meditation opens up and burns your way through the iron curtain that keeps you from seeing and understanding life in its truest essence. "Be still and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10). It is in the stillness of meditation that you get to know God more intimately. You move from knowing about God to actually knowing Him. Realities that are hidden from the eye of the flesh cannot escape the unrelenting gaze of meditation that burns through the crust of concealment and renders everything naked. "The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day" (Proverbs 4:18).

Even though meditation and confession are two different activities, they work best when they are paired together. "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night..." What causes the Word to not stop coming out of your mouth is your continuous meditation of it. The more you think about it is the more you will talk about it. And the more you talk about it is the more you participate in divine nature. It changes your prayer life, your reality and your world. It causes you to begin to think, talk and act like the Almighty God. He has built it in you to be that way; it is up to you to develop it.

"Blessed are those who listen to me, watching daily at my doors, waiting at my doorway" (NIV). Meditation opens your spiritual eyes to the realities of the unseen world where it becomes easier to see and hear in the spirit. It opens the spiritual ears to hear what the Spirit of God is saying to you as an individual, thereby taking you from the general to the specifics of God's word and plan or purpose about your own life. "Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches" (Revelation 3:6,13,22, NIV). "Whoever has ears, let them hear" (Matthew 13:9). These are not the physical ears or eyes, but the ears or eyes of the spirit.

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Your success or prosperity is not the responsibility of God or anyone else; it is your responsibility depending on what you do with the word of God. Meditation is the key to seeing and doing what is needful for your success: "...that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." You cannot see how to do what is written if you do not take the time to meditate on it. During prayer there is a time to speak, a time to listen, and a time to meditate. This is where any believer can develop the inclination to be prophetic.

Note that becoming prophetic does not make you a prophet (as in the office of the prophet referred to in Ephesians 4:11). Every believer can be prophetic though not a prophet, and every prophet is prophetic. A prophetic person is one who, through adherence to meditation of the Word and prayer, has developed the ability to listen to the voice of God in his or her spirit, and is able to discern what God is showing him or saying to him regarding any particular aspect of his or her life, or the steps that need to be taken to continue in life. Abram's ability to obey God by leaving his country was due to his prophetic inclination (Genesis 12:1-4).

Meditation And Visions (Acts 2:17)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

A vision manifests as the ability to see in the spirit (Isaiah 6:1; Acts 2:17). The most basic form of a vision is a dream, and other forms are closed visions and open visions. The Bible does not teach us to ask for visions in our lives as that can be dangerous (2 Corinthians 11:14). The best way to move in these realms is by meditation of the Word and prayer, and your spirit will 'naturally' develop the supernatural ability to see in the spirit, whether through dreams, open or closed visions. Study Acts 9:10-18. All that is recorded there happened as a direct result of the men's inclination to prayer and meditation. God still desires to guide His people in this manner today.

"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth..." Safe to mention that Jesus was indicating that what is written in the Bible is not all that you need to live by. Although valuable for instruction and never to be undermined, it is in most cases general. However, the specific instruction must still be judged by the general instruction. By comparison it is like the specific Acts in Law having to work within the ambits of the Constitution. For example, the Bible does not tell you where to settle and build, or where to work, etc. You need the voice of the Spirit to guide you in those details.

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

How was Abraham able to know that he needed to leave his country? (Genesis 12:1). Obviously he did not read it somewhere, but had to hear the voice of God speaking to him. The Father's desire, according to John 16:12-15 is for all His children to be led by the Spirit. But how will you be led if you do not know His voice? It takes diligence in prayer, the Word and meditation to learn to hear His voice that must guide you into the paths you must take for your life to the glory of God. If you do not strive to know and hear His voice you will spend all your life confined to the general instructions of the Word when you could go further through the Spirit.

Prayer Secret No. 4
About My Father's Business

In Luke 2:49, Jesus asks His earthly parents – Mary and Joseph – a question: "How is it that you had to look for Me? Did you not see and know that it is necessary [as a duty] for Me to be in My Father's house and [occupied] about My Father's business?" (AMP).

From a tender age of twelve, Jesus had already caught on to the truth and vision that engaging with God should best be viewed and described as engaging in His business. This is what many of us believers have not yet realised... that God is a businessman. And businesspeople do not go about wasting time on activities that do not speak to the bottom line of the business. This means that whatever you do in the kingdom of God should be done with the mentality of business. No wonder most of the teachings of the Christ had to do with business. What does this have to do with prayer? Everything.

You see, you will lose the point until you start understanding the essence of prayer and guidance on how to conduct it as guided by the word. A prayer session as a business meeting with God where you discuss serious business issues. Your prayer life will change as soon as you take up that mentality towards prayer. The primary purpose of a business meeting is not to make demands and address your wants. You attend a business meeting with a strategic mindset. It is where you discuss the what, the why, the how and the when of the progression of the business. And then when the business succeeds, everybody involved in it stands to benefit. Our problem has been that we have read wrongly into statements that the Lord Jesus made, like "I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. You may ask for anything in my name, and I will do it" (John 14:13-14, NIV). We have read these scriptures in isolation without caring to investigate the context in which they were spoken. And upon close examination we find that Jesus was talking about the kingdom of God and its advancement. In fact, these were His last and most important words about the kingdom, spoken during the Last Supper before He faced the cross of His crucifixion. Remember Matthew 6:33, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well"(NIV).

We have thought that these statements were addressing our needs and earthly possessions and luxuries. Yet in line with Matthew 6:33 He was talking about things concerning the kingdom of God – that if it became first in our thinking and action, then all these things would be given to us. God knows that you need all those things in order to serve His kingdom effectively, so you do not have to waste time asking for things that He has already provided. Instead, occupy your prayer life with kingdom affairs. Continuing to talk about the business of the Father and its fruitfulness in John 15:1-2, Jesus identified the Father as the husbandman (or gardener, or vinedresser), and went on to say, "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down his life for one's friends" (John 15:13, NIV). This laying down of your life does not necessarily mean death, but setting aside your personal needs in prayer to pray for others and sacrificing your luxury for that of others. The highest form of prayer is the one offered on behalf of others. That was the kind of praying that Jesus spent His entire earthly life occupied in (Mark 1:35). "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent" (Luke 4:43, NIV). That mission directed His prayer life. God's business has always been about restoring everything that the enemy stole from man in the Garden of Eden.

So what does 'restoring everything' mean in prayer? It means that you talk less and listen more. And if He sends you on an errand He will make sure that whatever you need for the mission is provided for (Philippians 4:19) . If you need a car, a house, food and clothes, all those will be provided for without you having to focus on asking for them. But alas, we have missed the point and are caught up in non- essential desires, and we wonder when we do not see the answer to our prayers. Refer to James 4:1-3. Oh yes, He will give you the money, the houses, the cars and so forth, but the reason for all of that is not so you can be self-serving, but that you should be a blessing to other people. You are to use these provisions to minister salvation (healing, deliverance, and preservation) to other people (Genesis 12:2). And you should realise that to be the reason He deployed you in that neighbourhood and in that workplace. The primary reason that God will answer your prayer is so that you will meet the needs of the people around you, consistent with the objectives of His business (John 14:13). That is the most fulfilling life that you and I have been called to live on earth.

Prayer Is Business (Luke 2:49)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

In the mind of Christ, prayer is just as much a business activity as any other that needs your incomparable commitment. As a matter of fact He does not even see it as a religious activity; He never founded religion and has no concern for it. As a prayer warrior, you are a co-worker with God in the business of reconciling mankind back to Him. Prayer helps to prevent many deaths of the wicked, which God takes no pleasure in (Ezekiel 33:11). Standing in the gap and praying for the lost in this world is the foremost calling of every believer. It is not the responsibility of the evangelist and the preachers only, but for every man or woman that confesses Jesus as their Lord.

Religious tendencies will cause you to operate at a level far below what God intends for you in prayer. Religious thoughts will kill your prayer life to where it becomes a drab and just another powerless religious exercise that has no life. If this describes your current situation then brace yourself for some positive change. "Is it possible to have a dialogue with God in prayer?" Most assuredly, yes! In fact, that is what prayer should be all about for you. Think of it as a telephone call with God instead of the traditional letter that would take fourteen days to come full circle. The religious mindset causes believers to be set back and settle for a boring time of prayer.

Refuse to wallow in the swamps of religion when you can swim in the blessedness of a fulfilling fellowship with God. Jesus had face to face conversations with His disciples, and He said, "Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father" (John 14:9, NIV). If that is the case, then they were having conversations with the Father all along, and He responded to them in real time. Why should it be different now? We have allowed the veil of the flesh to get in the way of our spiritual being; otherwise it should not make any difference at all. Yes, it will not happen overnight, but it can be developed to get to that level if you commit to developing your walk and intimacy with the Lord.

"For who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ" (NIV). What does it mean to have the mind of Christ? It means that we have the mind that is influenced by the anointing of God (1 John 2:27). That was the mind that was active in our Lord Jesus by the same Spirit that now works in us. But that Spirit will not work in you if your mindset is not straightened out and renewed to the truth of God's word. In prayer, the Holy Spirit disseminates the thoughts of Christ into your mind so that you can think the way He does about any situation or matter that you pray about.

You can never be a fruitful believer if you do not approach prayer and whatever you do with the mindset of Jesus. Thinking like Him automatically puts you in the position where you seek first His kingdom (Matthew 6:33). See the world and its population through the eyes of Jesus, and not through the eyes of the secular world. Thinking like Jesus will elevate any believer from being just a normal human being to being a powerful spiritual force that cannot be ignored in the spirit realm. Understand that the moment you enter the prayer closet, your spiritual presence is not limited to that little space, but that you can go farther than your body can go.

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord" (Isaiah 55:8). Many believers quote this scripture out of context forgetting who it was addressing. It addressed the nation of Israel that was spiritually dead and could not relate with God spirit to spirit since Jesus had not yet gone to the cross to redeem any, hence He dealt with them on the basis of law. A born again believer can no longer run with such a narrative because He has given you His thoughts and shared His ways with you. "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 2:5). "He is the head of the body, the church" (Colossians 1:18). Remember that the head and the body belong to the same person and share the same thoughts.

"As you [Father] sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world." You have the exact same mandate on you that was on Jesus Christ, except that you are not a substitute and sacrifice for anybody. However, in terms of all else that you read about Jesus doing in the Gospels, that is your assignment for as long as you are here on earth. Do not delight in only being the recipient of salvation, but delight more in that it has been given to you to give the same salvation to others as well. "Freely you have received; freely give" (Matthew 10:8, NIV).

Believers all over the world need to go back to the drawing board with God. The vision has been lost to some preachers, leading to a perpetration of a gospel of self-enrichment instead of bringing in the lost. "On hearing this, Jesus said to them, It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but those who are ill. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners" (Mark 2:17, NIV). Sinners are the number one concern of the Lord Jesus, who wants to see them coming into the sheepfold (John 10:16). He has called you and anointed you so that He can complete this job through you.

Humanity is your business whether you realise it or not. God is counting on you to come through for the lives of the lost around you. Yes you are extremely precious to Jesus, but you must never lose sight of the reason He had you born again. Selfish believers who have lost sight of their salvation will take hours and days praying for themselves and their families. That may be good to do, but it must not land you on the wrong path for your salvation. Beside Jesus, men and women gave their lives to get this gospel to the people of the world that they never even knew existed. They understood the reason for their salvation and followed it through. "For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil" (1 John 3:8).

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in Me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from Me you can do nothing" (John 15:5, NIV). Fruitfulness in scripture primarily refers to what you bring in to the kingdom of God. Here Jesus was giving a directive to the disciples about the way forward after His crucifixion, death and resurrection. It was, and still is about advancing the kingdom of God through vessels such as you. Restoring mankind to the original state that God had planned was what Jesus' coming was all about. He said, "Come, follow Me, and I will send you out to fish for people" (Matthew 4:19; 28:19-20).

We work with our hands in order to provide for our necessities (Acts 20:34); we engage spiritually in order to make an impact on the lives of others around us. We do not live to make a living. We give for a living, and live to make an impact. If your life is not about making an eternal difference to somebody else's life, then it is not worth living (John 15:13). Even your secular job should be geared towards changing someone else's life: "Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth" (Ephesians 4:28).

You will never be fulfilled until your will is linked with His will so that you can do what He called you to do. Jesus did His part in the 33 years – of which three were spent in active ministry – that He lived on earth. How much are we accomplishing in the time that we have? Prayer time is not for you to tick out the attendance register so you can feel better about yourself; it is where direction for the Father's business in your jurisdiction is discussed. "Very truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by Himself; He can do only what He sees His Father doing…" (John 5:19, NIV). Jesus took the time to enquire from the Father what He needed to do, which was what brought results in His ministry. Many of us do not see results because we do not know how to enquire and know the Father's timetable for us. We must not put the resources of this world ahead of the Father's guidance to know what we must do.

Prayer Secret No. 5
Understanding The Blood Covenant

Many believers are robbed of a fulfilling prayer life because of not knowing enough of what the covenant that was ratified in the blood of Jesus means for them. In fact, many do not fully understand that the entire word of God (or the Bible) is a documentation of the provisions of the covenants that God made with man all through the ages. In addition there seems to be limited understanding amongst some about what a covenant entails. Since this is a very broad subject, let us narrow it down for the purpose of what this journal is about. Whenever you go to pray, go there knowing that your prayer has already been answered in Jesus. Why? Because this last covenant, known as the New Testament, was made between God and the Man Jesus, who is the High Priest of our confession (Hebrews 3:1). Jesus has gone before God to present His own blood as a representative of all mankind (Hebrews 6:20). It is through this act that God sees us through the blood of Jesus, which is what makes that blood so powerful for our benefit.

What Are The Implications Of This Covenant?

From time immemorial, people understood covenant as a ritual involving two individuals who cut a covenant, mixing the bloods of the parties involved [in the wine]. These parties then drink of that wine, meaning that they drink of each other's blood in order to make them one. Some cultures still practise it even today. That is the reason the Lord Jesus always spoke of Him and the Father being one (John 17:21-22). If you consider the language used by Jesus in that prayer you will realise that He speaks as though He has already been crucified. That is the language of covenant, consistent with the language used in the case of Abraham having offered up Isaac as a sacrifice even though the latter was replaced by a ram (Genesis 22:12-13; Hebrews 11:17-19). This covenant made Jesus the possessor of heaven and earth as much as it did Abram (John 16:15; Genesis 14:18-20). Look closely at the blessing conferred upon Abram by Melchizedek, who was a type of Christ (Hebrews 7:3). If you do not pay close attention you will think that Melchizedek referred to God as the possessor of heaven and earth. But that is not what he did. He first blessed Abram and called him the possessor of heaven and earth (Genesis 14:19), and then he blessed God who delivered Abram's enemies into his hand (Genesis 14:20). How could he do that? As a prophet and high priest, he saw the covenant that God would make with Abram afterward, because he knew that no man could have done what Abram did if God was not with him.

The same is true about the Lord Jesus: His covenant with God made Him possessor of everything that belongs to the Father. But it does not end there: you need to understand the implications for you. Anyone who comes to Jesus becomes a joint-heir with Him of all that belongs to God (Romans 8:17). Our covenant with God through Jesus gives us access to everything that God has, and it also gives God access to everything that we have. We know that God is the Great Creator of everything, but what do we have that God could be so interested in? Unlike what religion would have us believe as fully unpacked in Prayer Secret 1, we have something very valuable to God, and something that He does not have. We have the physical bodies that God can use to relate with the lost humanity in this world. That is the reason Romans 12:1 urges us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God. What it means is that we should allow God, by His Spirit, to indwell our bodies and live in us in order to do what He, without our bodies, cannot do on earth (1 Corinthians 6:19). Our bodies belong to Him just as much as His Spirit has been given to us, and we have access to His mighty power.

Therefore a clear understanding of this covenant helps to anchor our minds on the unchangeable nature of the promises of God to us (Hebrews 6:19). You enter the presence of God in prayer with the full knowledge that all His promises are 'Yes' and 'Amen' in Christ to the glory of God (2 Corinthians 1:20). You understand the nature of the partnership that you have with God for the advancement of His kingdom, which has now become your kingdom as well. You are not only a servant, but also a joint-heir with Christ of the kingdom which God has prepared for us. Therefore you should take the time to dig deeper into what this covenant means for you and God, as well as in relation to all of creation. This ownership mentality will change your attitude toward prayer, as well as how actually pray.

"But in fact the ministry [that] Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which He is mediator is superior to the old one, since the new covenant is established on better promises" (NIV). Based on the pure, spotless blood of the Lamb of God that gives new life to all that receive it, a much better platform has been provided for us to have communion with the Godhead. It is better than everything that we read about in the Old Testament. Our prayer lives should therefore yield greater results than what those of the Old Testament saints did.

"For the life of the flesh is in the blood... for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul." This transfusion took place during the new birth; hence "if any man be in Christ, he is a new creation: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17). Your covenant with God places you in a position to harvest the strength (or power) of God and enables you to do what you have no power to do on your own. Note that He asked for your body just as it is ("voetstoots"), and He will refurbish it for His own use. That is the only reasonable act of service that He asks of you when you compare it with all that you stand to benefit from the relationship with Him. How do you do that? "Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord" (Romans 12:11, NIV). "He that eateth My flesh, and drinketh My blood, dwelleth in Me, and I in him" (John 6:56). What does that mean? It means the merging that takes place between you and Jesus. The only closest example to illustrate this is the union that takes place between a husband and wife in marriage. They benefit from the strengths of each other. "For those who eat and drink without discerning the body of Christ eat and drink judgment on themselves" (1 Corinthians 11:29, NIV). Furthermore, it reminds you about the value of the other believers who make up the body of Christ, who have also eaten of His flesh and have drunk of His blood, and have thus also become one with you. Harming them is harming yourself, which is "why many among you are weak and ill, and a number of you have fallen asleep" (or have died) (verse 30).

God's life has been infused into you through the blood of Christ. This life makes you one with the Father just as it made Jesus one with the Father. Stepping into your prayer closet is stepping into the place where you can claim your inheritance. You do not pray in order to try and please or impress God; you pray in order to see to it that the job that He has set aside for you to do gets done.

"Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God's people and also members of His household" (NIV). The blood of Jesus has ensured this to be the case with you – you are His blood-brother or blood-sister. Stop thinking any less of yourself than what God has said in His word. The blood of Christ at work in your life has 'disabled' fear in your life – the cancer that corrupts the prayers of many believers so that they go unanswered. This blood has rendered you indestructible, so that even if they kill your body, it will rise again. They cannot inflict death on the blood that has sanctified you because it has defeated death through its characteristic of being full of life and devoid of death. So you do not work from a standpoint of death or darkness, but from a standpoint of life and light.

Every droplet of His blood was worth the work that He accomplished. The believer should take full advantage of this blood to manifest God to the lost world and recover for God what the devil has stolen from mankind.

There is nothing that prevents you from approaching the Creator of the universe – your own heavenly Father. He will never walk away from covenant. "I will not violate My covenant or alter what My lips have uttered" (Psalm 89:34, NIV). That is the kind of God that you serve and pray to. He recognises that armour and he remembers that it is what whipped him and took away the keys of death, hell and the grave a while before Christ was raised from the dead. Do not be bothered that at first the armour of God might not fit you snugly. Wear it anyway, and you will grow in it. Do not do these battles with the armour of the flesh. What is the armour of God? It is Truth, Righteousness, Peace, Faith, Salvation, the Word of God, and Prayer. If you take a close look at these, they are all products of the Word of God, which is Jesus – the Word made flesh – working in you. His word is therefore the most powerful weapon in the universe. Prayer Secret No. 6
Fasting And Spiritual Warfare

It is human tendency to want to resort to some form of enforcement when things do not seem to work according to plan. People have Plan B, Plan C, and so forth for almost anything. Even in prayer, people tend to want to resort to fasting when it seems that there is a delay in the answer coming forth. However, gears are changed carelessly when we begin to think that it is the fasting that brings answers to prayer because then you tend to misplace your faith on fasting rather than on God. Yet that is not what the word of God teaches about fasting. Fasting is a very good practice, but it has its place in the life of a believer.

If you examine scriptures that talk about fasting and praying you will find that one is not meant to reinforce the other. For example, Jesus says nothing about fasting in His teaching about faith and prayer in Mark 11:22-24. He talks about praying and believing in one's heart, and does not refer to fasting. Yet He also teaches about fasting, but with the knowledge that the people already had background understanding about the subject. "When you fast, do not look somber as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show others they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have their reward in full. But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that it will not be obvious to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you" (Matthew 6:16-18, NIV). Notice that He is not introducing the subject of fasting to them, but how to do it and what to do when they fast.

Believers tend to think that God hears them better, or sees how serious they are when they fast. Yet fasting is not meant for that at all. It is not meant to twist the arm of God into doing what He will not do, neither is it meant to demonstrate to God just how serious one is. It is not even meant to speed up answers to prayer. We receive answers to prayer by faith in His promises. Nowhere in the Bible is fasting responsible for answers to prayer. So why should you fast? Fasting changes you; it does not change or move God in any way. It helps to place you in a position where you can easily receive from God, but it is not a replacement for faith. You can fast all you want, but if you do not have faith you will not receive because the connection is broken.

Jesus was teaching that fasting is a private spiritual affair. This means that it works more like reconditioning a product in order for it to work well. When you fast you actually feed your spirit, thus putting your spirit being first (in a sense), and subduing the body (1 Corinthians 9:27; Colossians 3:5). You do not fast without taking some quality time on the word of God and prayer, otherwise all you would be doing is just going hungry for a couple of days. In other words, fasting without focusing on your spiritual development is no different from engaging in a diet program. Also, it will serve you well to announce your fasting to God before you start, thus clearly setting the parameters of your fast to keep you in line. So what happens when you fast? You develop your spirit to become fit, more sensitive to the Holy Spirit, and easily apt to following the leading of the Spirit. Fasting does to your spirit what a concentrated exercise program will do to an athlete's body when he is preparing to compete in the Olympic Games. You become more spiritually agile, sharp, and strong enough to handle tricky situations. That was the reason Jesus embarked on a fast before He started with His public ministry (Matthew 4:1-2).

The Prophet Isaiah spoke about fasting as the Spirit of the Lord inspired him in Isaiah 58:1-14. You will do good to read that for yourself. There you will notice that he shows them the wrong way and the correct way of fasting, as well as the results that they would experience during and after a fast. You will also do well to understand that when you fast, you should also do it in faith, which is why you must stay on the word of God and prayer when you do. Fasting is also a broad subject for which we do not have time or space to explore in all detail, but the little that we have shared should give you a head start in at least doing it the correct way.

According To The Word (Psalm 119:11)

If you want to be safe, do whatever you do according to the guidelines provided in the word of God, and not just because it is a ritual that people engage in. Seek the knowledge and understanding of the subject before you embark on it. In that manner you will avoid gravitating into error and religion. Did you know that religious people also fast? Yes, satanists, witchdoctors and witches also engage in fasting for their own reasons. The word of God will teach you how to fast according to His will.

"In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness." Whilst fasting can help to keep your body in good shape physically through the benefits that are associated with it, it helps to do it correctly, especially when you do it often. There is a thin line between fasting and a diet program. As you may be aware, there are different types of fasting, from fasting certain foods to just taking certain liquids to a completely dry fast. It is always advisable to know how to do it as doing it foolishly may end up doing more harm than good.

It Changes You (Luke 5:35)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Nothing around you or outside of you changes as a result of your fasting. The fasting changes your spirit being, and consequently you influence your environment and surroundings. As a result, somebody stepping into your 'personal space' or coming into close proximity with you may sense the energy, or what others may refer to as 'aura', or the anointing. That is what is inside you coming out and influences your surroundings. In scripture it is referred to in terms such as 'the shadow of Peter' (Acts 5:15) and 'virtue' or 'power' (Mark 5:30).

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Your fasting will not change other people, but it will put you in a position to bring the change to others as you minister to them under the anointing. It helps you to loosen the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, to let the oppressed go free, and to break or destroy every yoke (Isaiah 58:6; 10:27). That was what the anointing on Jesus did, and the same happened through His apostles afterward as narrated in the Acts of the Apostles.

Fasting comes in handy when you take it upon yourself to seek the Lord. You can decide to enter into any particular type of fasting for a predetermined period as you seek the Lord. Of course He is not far from you, but you may find that your spiritual senses have gone blunt for whatever reason, and you have become spiritually dense (Hebrews 5:11). Then fasting, study of the Word, prayer and meditation will help restore your spiritual sensitivity, which is so needful in your walk with God.

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Fasting is not a method of managing your budget. In fact, it is more effective to fast while you give away the meals that you would have had if you had not been fasting. This becomes a more effective tool of evangelism. Fasting to beat your budget is simply a diet program which will not count spiritually. You cannot cut corners; otherwise everyone facing starvation would be a spiritual giant as they go into involuntary fasting. Your motive counts and it matters.

Praying At Midnight (Daniel 6:10)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Is praying at midnight the best time to pray? Some people believe so, and say that it is because forces of darkness are more active then. However, scripture does not endorse that thinking. Forces of darkness are active at any time of day or night, which is why all sorts of atrocities are committed around the clock. If you feel comfortable praying at midnight, it is fine; however, it should not be because witches and other forces are at work then. In fact, you may find yourself praying in response to fear, which renders your prayer void. "It is vain for thee to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so He giveth His beloved sleep" (Psalm 127:2).

Praying At Midnight (Part 2)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Why did Paul and Silas pray and sing praises to God at midnight? The Bible does not say, but surely they were not establishing a prayer time pattern; it may have been the time that seemed best for them under the circumstances (Acts 16:25). But Jesus would rise up early before dawn and go to a solitary place to pray (Mark 1:35). Sometimes He would go out and spend the night in prayer (Luke 6:12), and other times He would go out to pray before and into the evening (Matthew 14:23). So you can see just how at the peak of revival the time of prayer did not make any difference.

M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Of course, there is an advantage to praying at night. In most cases it is quiet and there are very few or no disturbances. Undisturbed prayer time is often great and fruitful. Do not stay awake because of fear of the activities in darkness. "You will not fear the terror of night" (Psalm 91:5). It does not matter if all of hell marches toward you at night; you are safe if you dwell in the secret place of the Most High (Psalm 91:1). You already have the promise that sends you to sleep with confidence. "When you lie down, you will not be afraid... your sleep will be sweet" (Proverbs 3:24, NIV).

Did you know that your spirit never goes to sleep even when your body is resting in sleep? Your spirit – the real you – is like God who never sleeps nor slumbers (Psalm 121:3-4). It is always alert, so that even when forces of darkness try to attack you while your body is resting, your spirit will most definitely deal with them if the need arises; otherwise you have the angels of God keeping guard over you, which is a great reinforcement against evil. Give your body enough sleep, which is healthy for you, and you will become more useful in the earth as you live longer.

Picking Battles Wisely (Psalm 144:1)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

There are believers who think war at all times. Whereas we are in a war, not everything is war. Many of the prayers that some believers who lack understanding make are not even scriptural, and are therefore never backed by Heaven. For example, "Any spirit that is assigned against my..., catch fire and die in Jesus' name!" Beloved, spirits never die, but are eternal. That decree is therefore invalid and a waste of breath. Nowhere in the Scriptures does Jesus or any of His apostles kill demons or spirits. They can be subdued and arrested (Psalm 149:6-9; Mark 5:8; Luke 11:24-26; Revelation 20:10 & 21:14-15), but not killed.

Spiritual warfare does not mean you go around casting out every demon in the way. That can be very exhausting. It means though, that you have put on the armour of God in order to be able to withstand the devil's wiles as and when occasion arises (Ephesians 6:13). Take note: "so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground" (NIV). It is vain to try and engage in warfare without the whole armour of God; in fact, that results in many casualties and prisoners of war.

Opponents must be gently instructed, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth, and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, who has* taken them captive to do his will" (NIV). Banish The Strife (2 Timothy 2:24)

Date: / / 20_____
M	T	W	T	F	S	S

Any form of strife is deadly to a believer. You get involved in that strife, and you set yourself for any spiritual warfare, you have just made yourself vulnerable to attack. The enemy will just pull the rug from under you, and all the ammunition that you have will be neutralised by the strife in your life (whether in church, at home, in your marriage, or anywhere else), and the enemy will imprison you. It is not a suggestion: "...the servant of the Lord must not be quarrelsome." If you want to engage in spiritual warfare, get rid of strife and keep it out of your life for good.

"There are six things the Lord hates, seven that are detestable to him... a false witness who pours out lies and a person who stirs up conflict in the community" (NIV). The KJV says, "...and he that soweth discord among brethren." Why does God hate strife? It is characteristic of the devil who engaged a third of the angels in it, and were thrown out of heaven as a result. That is the same trick that he uses to neutralise a believer and renders them useless in battle. How do you control strife? Learn to tame your tongue.

"But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison." Whilst it is true that no man can tame the tongue, there is one thing that can, and that is the word of God. That is what you find if you read further down the chapter. It refers to the wisdom that descends from above and contrasts it with the wisdom of the world. The wisdom from above that tames the tongue is the word of God. You must strive to be a man or woman that is full of the Word in order to be a good soldier of Jesus Christ (2 Timothy 2:3-4).

"My heart is stirred by a noble theme as I recite my verses for the king; my tongue is the pen of a skillful writer" (NIV). When your tongue is tamed, it becomes the pen that writes skillfully in the spirit, writing the vision that the Lord shows you in prayer (Habakkuk 2:2-3). The vision becomes the decree that you make in the spirit, which shall be established and brought to pass (Job 22:28). M	T	W	T	F	S	S

"For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise." Praying for the lost, communities and nations, and standing in the gap to see change taking place requires patience. You fast and pray, and in the spirit subdue the powers that control nations from the air. Change takes place in the air before it manifests in the physical world. What you say with your mouth in the interim is crucial: it will either enforce the decrees made, or it will revoke what has been decreed so that change will not manifest.

"To those who sold doves He said, 'Get these out of here! Stop turning my Father's house into a market!' His disciples remembered that it is written: 'Zeal for your house will consume me'" (NIV). What consumes you? Jesus was consumed (or eaten up) with the zeal of His Father's house. The house of the Lord and His work was what He was passionate about. Zeal will wake you up when others are asleep so that you can pray without having to drag your feet to the prayer closet. Zeal will drive you to the Word so that the sword of the Spirit will always be ready in your mouth to execute vengeance upon the enemy (Psalm 149:6-9).

Let the word of God cultivate the zeal of God in your life so that you can be a prayer warrior that is worth your salt. There are levels of spiritual navigation that you simply will not venture into without the passion that is needed. "I am a foreigner to my own family, a stranger to my own mother's children; for zeal for your house consumes me, and the insults of those who insult you fall on me" (Psalm 69:8-9). That describes Jesus so perfectly (Mark 3:21; John 7:5). Your own people may not understand you when you start tapping into these levels, but the Lord will.

Prayer Of Salvation

God loves you – no matter who you are or what your past was like. He gave His one and only Son Jesus for you. The Bible tells us, "...whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life" (John 3: 16). Jesus, driven by love, laid down His life for mankind. He died, was buried and rose from the grave, so that we could spend eternity with Him in heaven and experience His best while we are living on the earth. If you would like to receive Jesus into your life, say the following prayer aloud and mean it from your heart:

> Heavenly Father, I come to You admitting that I am a sinner. Right now, I choose to turn away from sin, and I ask You to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that He rose from the dead so that I might be forgiven of my sins and be made righteous through faith in Him. I call on the name of Jesus Christ to be the Saviour and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow You and ask that You fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that I am free from sin and am full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus' name. Amen.
